WDAA Announces Qualification for the Morgan Grand National.

Parker, Colorado – The Western Dressage Association® of America (WDAA) is proud to announce that the 2016 Western Dressage World Championship Horse Show will take place September 29-October 2 2016, and will qualify riders for this year's Morgan Grand National. Held at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, just 34 miles away from the OKC fairgrounds, the WDAA show ends just two days prior to move in day at the Morgan Grand National and layovers are welcome at the Lazy E Arena.

No qualification is required for the WDAA Western Dressage World Championship and entries open July 1st, 2016. But hurry, entries are limited so early enrollment is encouraged.

Western dressage classes take place October 8 and 9 at the Morgan Grand National. Here is your opportunity to win at two different world championship shows in one week!
